

The Digital Public Sphere Working Group, together with the Robert Schuman Centre for Advanced Studies, Centre for a Digital Society, are delighted to invite you to

The Promises and Perils of Regulatory Biometric Sandboxes

Thursday 27th of February, 10:00–12:00
Seminar room 4 (Badia Fiesolana)
and Zoom
European University Institute (EUI), Florence, Italy

Programme:

Chair: Alena Yarmak, European University Institute (EUI)

10:00-10:15: Welcome remarks

- Prof. Andrea Simoncini, Università degli Studi Firenze
- Prof. Amnon Reichman, Fernand Braudel Fellow, European University Institute (EUI)

10:15-10:30: The promises and perils of sandboxes

- Prof. Antonino Rotolo, Università di Bologna (TBC)

10:30-11:15: Presentation of the white paper “Regulatory Sandboxes for AI and Cybersecurity. Questions and answers for stakeholders”

- Filippo Bagni, European Commission and Scuola IMT Alti Studi Lucca
- Fabio Seferi, Scuola IMT Alti Studi Lucca

Discussants:

- Anna Renata Pisarkiewicz, European University Institute (EUI)
- Prof. Tal Zarsky, University of Haifa

11:15-12:00: Presentation of the report “Securing Digital Identities”

- Abdullah Elbi, KU Leuven
- Eirik Gulbrandsen and Magnus Muehlbradt, Datatilsynet, Norwegian Data Protection Authority

Discussants:

- Natalia Menéndez, European University Institute (EUI)
- Giuseppe Mobilio, Università degli Studi Firenze

12:00-12:15: Concluding remarks

- Prof. Pier Luigi Parcu, European University Institute (EUI)
- Prof. Marco Botta, European University Institute (EUI)